READ THIS!

Milledgeville, Ky., Jan. 1, 1903.—Mr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo. Dear Sir: I have been a great sufferer from kidney disease and was treated by my home physicians with no benefit. Your Texas Wonder has cured me and I am satisfied it saved my life, and I can cheerfully recommend it to ladies suffering with kidney and bladder troubles. Respectfully,
MRS. ELIZA FROST.

A Texas Wonder.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles; removes gravel, diabetes, semina, emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in men and women and regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is a six months treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonial. Sold by all druggists and R. C. Hardwick, Hopkinsville.

"The Little Duchess."

The Countess von Hatzfeldt, the star of "The Little Duchess" company, which comes to Holland's opera house Jan. 11th, is one of the cleverest women on the musical comedy stage. For three years she was the bright, particular star in the "Burgomaster" and "The Storika."

Handsome costumes than those used in the production of "The Little Duchess" cannot be found in any musical comedy or light opera now before the American public. The Parisian gowns worn by the "Saddle" girls in the second act are the handsomest gowns seen on the stage in years.

The Spirit of Winter.

The Spirit of Winter is with us, making its presence known in many different ways—sometimes by cherry sunshine and glistening snows, and sometimes by driving winds and blinding storms. To many people it seems to take a delight in making bad things worse, for rheumatism twists and twinges sharper, catarrh becomes more annoying, and the many symptoms of scrofula are developed and aggravated. There is not much poetry in this, but there is truth and it is a wonder that more people don't get rid of these ailments. The medicine that cures them—Hood's sarsaparilla—is easily obtained and there is abundant proof that its cures are radical and permanent.

MAYOR'S INAUGURAL.

Treasurer's Annual Report Shows Bank Balance of Nearly $10,000.

The City Council met in regular session Friday night, as reported in last issue, and transacted much important business.

Before taking up the regular order, Mayor Meacham read the following inaugural address to the Council.

Meacham's Message.

In assuming the office of mayor, to which your votes have called me, I shall briefly outline the policy that will govern my official acts and call your attention to some of the matters that in my opinion require your consideration.

The Police.

There is a public demand for improvement in the Police department, which your honorable body felt and heeded when you made wholesale changes in the personnel of the force for the ensuing term. I shall devote my best efforts and energies to this particular work, co-operating fully with your body, most of you experienced in municipal affairs, and asking the aid and assistance of the other departments of the city government, all of which are more or less intimately associated with the executive branch. The chief of police, an officer whose efficiency has stood the test of more than twenty years in another department, I am assured will co-operate with me in efforts to improve the service, and I am hopeful that every officer under him will prove to be obedient, faithful and efficient in the discharge of his duties. Rules will be posted outing what those duties are and the chief will be instructed to rigidly enforce the rules, and I shall ask the council to sustain me in my determination to retain no officer on the force who persistently violates the rules and falls short of the requirements of his position.

REAL AMERICAN WOMAN.

Celebrated German Finds Raw London in Our Cities. But Unearths New Things in Country.

She lives in a small town in the middle west. Strange to say, the highest praise that I ever heard bestowed on Lord Chester came from a foreigner, a celebrated German architect, who had designed a soldier's monument for one of our western capitals, and expressed our patriotic ideals for us in public works in several cities, says Elizabeth O. Cuddy in Public Opinion. "When I first went to your country," he said, "I visited only the cities, and there I looked in vain for anything peculiarly American, distinctly democratic, in your social life. I saw only a new version of London, Paris or Berlin, a new reproduction of the social order of the old world. But when I became acquainted with some of your little towns, there I found a phase of life quite unlike anything we know in Europe, quite superior to any social organism we have yet developed. There your people seemed really to believe that men are created free and equal. The same privileges and opportunities were enjoyed by all. Men of all occupations and professions met on the same social footing. I have seen one of your senators walking along the street in friendly conversation with the man who made his clothes; the architect had no nose for political mice. I have been entertained by ladies who did their own work without fear of losing caste, who discussed art and foreign politics with me without suggesting the blue stocking or the new woman. These communities were often centers of culture and education; each shared his best with his fellows; and all seemed united in the bond of mutual improvement.

"An Englishman once gave me his opinion that town life was the most satisfactory mode of living in America. 'There is too much hurry and worry in your cities,' he said, 'too much hard work and too great isolation on your farms. Only the very rich among you can really enjoy either city life or country life. For the man of moderate means the small town offers the greatest advantages.' A distinguished French woman who had been the guest of one of the professors of an Illinois college wrote in her published impressions of America: 'I found a real Utopia, a woman's paradise, a place where living was simple and natural, where no artificial barriers had been erected, where housekeeping was reduced to its simplest terms. My hostess and her three daughters did most of the work of the house; the one who served us gracefully at the table played the piano with more than an amateur's skill; another chatted fluently to me in French while she made my bed; all three were students in the university from which their father and mother had graduated in the same class.'

BELL FRANCHISE

IS FORFEITED.

for the future as well as for ourselves and make suitable provision for a park as soon as the finances of the city will justify the expenditure.

Stock Law.

The rapid strides made by the city during the last few years emphasized the fact that we no longer live in a country town, but a live, growing, enterprising city that must keep step with the march of progress. One of the relics of provincialism that I would like to see abolished is the ordinance permitting cattle to run upon the streets. This is a source of embarrassment to all citizens who point to Hopkinsville as an up-to-date city and it commits us to a policy that has long since been abandoned by all progressive cities. This question is one that should be settled in a business like way by the passage of an ordinance to take effect not later than April 1st, making it unlawful for any kind of live stock to run at large in the city. It is manifestly unjust that a heavy fence tax should be imposed upon the whole city in order that a minority of the citizens may be permitted to turn their cattle into the streets where there is no pasturage.

Profanity.

Many complaints have come to me from citizens who desire the enforcement of the ordinance against the use of profanity and indecent language on the streets and in public places. Especial complaint is made that prisoners in the city lock-up often use the most profane and vulgar language in the hearing of the family of the keeper and in the presence of prisoners not always as depraved as themselves. Profane and obscene language is prohibited in the city, when it is offensive to any one, and an enforcement of the ordinance would meet the hearty approval of a large proportion of the people. I hope the law will be better observed in the future.

Patrol Wagon.

One of the crying demands of the Police Department is a patrol wagon. I am informed that the livery bill in this department is usually from $20 to $35 per month. Most of this is for buggies used in making arrests. A patrol wagon and horse should be provided and kept near the police headquarters and this expense of several hundred dollars a year thereby saved to the city. The same horse could be utilized in case an officer had to be mounted to pursue an offender beyond the city limits, as is frequently the case.

Neglected Ordinances.

There are many ordinances that have been neglected in their enforcement that their very existence is unknown to the public. The failure to enforce these laws has caused some abuses to grow up in the city that, in my judgment, should be conservatively and carefully considered. If conditions have so changed that it would be unwise to enforce these ordinances, it would be better to revise them. In order to simplify the duties of the officials held responsible for the enforcement of the laws, I shall not at this time point out the laws referred to, but rather call your attention to the existence of many such. I shall enforce all laws given me to enforce and shall not knowingly hold myself amenable to the charge of neglect of duty.

Standing Committees.

In arranging the standing committees for the ensuing two years, I have made some changes to meet the requirements of new conditions. The committee heretofore known as the committee on "Water and Light" has been enlarged in scope to include such new enterprises as new electric railways, telephones and other corporations. The committee will be known as the Corporation Committee.

In view of the fact that the city expects to reach out for more factories, mills and workshops, I have thought it advisable to add a new committee to be known as the committee on Publicity and Promotion.

It is also expected that the city will soon have need of a committee to consider a park, a market house, a permanent hospital and other public grounds. A committee to have charge of these matters will be designated.

The Building Committee will also have its powers enlarged to include the supervision of such city improvements as may be made from time to time. It will be the duty of this committee to grant permits for new buildings of all kinds and to see that the ordinances pertaining to buildings are carried out. Many buildings have from time to time been erected in the city, in utter disregard of the ordinance prohibiting the erection of any kind of a covered structure without a permit from the proper committee of the Council. This committee will also be given authority to inspect buildings already up and see that they conform to city ordinances. The record book of permits granted should be kept in the City Clerk's office.

Fire Limits.

There are in close proximity to the business section of the city a number of dilapidated wooden sheds and structures that are not only eyesores but constitute a serious menace to property. I believe the fire limits should be enlarged and these buildings taken in, condemned and removed.

Franchises.

Hopkinsville is the home of a number of large enterprises, some of them capitalized at many millions of dollars. These great corporations pay little if any franchise taxes, and since the city now has two members, both lawyers in the General Assembly, they should be requested to endeavor to secure such amendments to the laws as will make it possible to tax all classes of property for city purposes that the state reaches for state purposes. A proper and just assessment of the corporations of the city, that now practically escape taxation, would double the revenues of the city.

Obstructing Sidewalks.

The Chief of Police has been instructed to enforce the law prohibiting the obstruction of sidewalks. This has grown to be a nuisance that should no longer be tolerated. Idlers have no right to take possession of the pavements to hold levees, while ladies are compelled to walk in the streets. The law is already adequate and I am sure the good effects of its proper enforcement will soon be seen.

The Social Evils.

Since the days when Joshua upred the house of Rahab, the harlot, in the fall of Jericho, the social evil has been one that every city has had to deal with. The experience in every age has been that this evil cannot be suppressed. At best it can only be regulated to some extent. The presence of a cordon of unregulated bawdy houses just outside the city limits constitutes a serious menace to the good order of our city and unfortunately one that cannot be removed without the co-operation of the county authorities. Nearly all cities, to avoid just this condition of affairs, have found it the part of wisdom to tolerate and confine such houses to a red light district within their own jurisdiction. The time will come as these houses multiply and extend their zone of baneful influence, when this problem may have to be solved in some such way. Under your ordinance, which is now being taken into the city and regulated, and while they are outside the city limits they cannot be interfered with by the city. But some corrective measures may be and should be taken inside the city. There is an ordinance prohibiting street walking at night by women of ill repute. This ordinance might be amended to include street driving, day or night, by the same class of women. It is possible to enforce order to the city limits and prevent the inmates from using the streets of the city to advertise their calling. Good order should be especially enforced along streets leading to houses of ill fame. The noisy night riding on these streets can be suppressed by prosecutions for disorder and a rigid enforcement of all ordinances regulating the

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Impure Blood
It is well known that the kidneys are the great filters of the body, and that if they become weak, the blood becomes impure, and the system suffers. The kidneys are the great filters of the body, and that if they become weak, the blood becomes impure, and the system suffers.

If you are sick or feel badly, begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists, fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Send for it at once when writing to Dr. Kilmor & Co., Ringhamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake. Remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, and the address, Ringhamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

morals of the city will, no doubt, give confidence to the people, who are showing much discontent over a condition of affairs that the city is in no wise responsible for. Our best efforts should be put forth to lessen a most troublesome evil.

Sunday Closing

In my judgment there should be material modifications of the present ordinances on Sunday closing, before any attempt should be made to enforce them, as many good people of the city are calling upon me to have done.

Conditions have changed since these ordinances were passed many years ago. Then it was made unlawful to transact any regular business whatever on Sunday, only permitting the sale of medicines on prescription, the delivery of newspapers for two hours only and the operation of railroads. The enforcement of this law now would stop ice wagons, milk wagons, baker shops, fruit stores, soda fountains, cigar stands, news stands, barber shops, boot-blacks, butcher shops, eating stands, telephone exchanges, telegraph offices, livery stables, water, gas and light companies, undertakers and many other interests about which opinions differ as to whether or not they are necessities. In justice to all concerned, I would recommend the enactment of a new Sunday law, out-

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.

We will send you a sample free, if you send back this picture in the form of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

YOUR body when clean of all that may be lawfully removed on Sunday. I regard this as one of the important matters that should receive your early attention.

Board of Health.

The annual report of the Board of Health will at your January meeting be submitted to your honorable body, making certain recommendations looking to sanitation that I commend to your careful consideration. We cannot afford to overlook the health of our citizens and our bitter experience of a year ago warns us that there is wisdom in the adage, "In time of peace prepare for war."

Financial Matters.

I am unable at this time to discuss the finances of the city, for the reason that the reports upon which such a discussion would be based will be submitted subsequent to the preparation of this address. I am informed that the correct expenses last year exceeded the revenues in the general fund and that the sinking fund and school fund were drawn upon temporarily for several thousand dollars to meet the demands. This sum, however, is represented in substantial permanent improvements, chief among them being the new quarters for the Fire Department so urgently needed. I regret that you begin the present year handicapped by this transfer of funds, but feel confident that by careful management and by economy in expenditures, the city will soon have these improvements paid for out of the proper fund without additional taxation.

At the conclusion of the address the Mayor appointed the standing committees given heretofore.

The Council elected Councilmen Armstrong and Clark to act with the Mayor as a Committee on Pardon.

The various city officials submitted monthly reports for December, which were received and filed.

Annual reports were also submitted by the Treasurer, the Chief of Police, the City Judge and by the cemetery, workhouse and other committees. All of the reports were received and referred to a special committee composed of Councilmen Jackson, Davis and Clark.

The Health Officer's report was filed and will be considered at the next meeting, as Dr. R. L. Woodard of the Board of Health, who was elected to the position of Chief of Fire Department was elected by the election of Freeman Ed. H. Hester. William Guthrie was elected to the vacancy created by Chief Hester's promotion.

The motion requiring Mr. John H. Bell, Jr., to appear and show cause why his street railway franchise should not be forfeited, came up as unfinished business. Mr. Bell appeared and maintained that his franchise dated from the published notice of its ratification on Sept. 15th, Judge J. T. Hanbury, for H. M. Dalton, argued that it dated from the formal ratification, Sept. 16. Mr. Bell began surveying Dec. 15th, the 91st day from Sept. 15.

Mr. Bell stated that it was not his intention to embarrass the Council by asking it to suspend action on his franchise, knowing full well the majority of the citizens favored immediate construction of a street railway, and in order to simplify matters, made the following proposition: If Mr. Dalton would then and there make a bond of $3,000 as a guaranty of good faith, to be forfeited to the city on his failure to carry out his agreement, he would deliver, free of cost, his franchise, his survey and all information he had been able to gather, to Mr. Dalton, and in addition would take a portion of Dalton's bonds at par. This Mr. Dalton declined, and asked for a new franchise to be sold Jan. 27 and the old one set aside, which was done.

Attorney John Feland appeared and said Sam'l Crawford, of Memphis, would also bid on the new franchise.

Pavement ordinances were passed ordering concrete payments on West Seventh street, near Water, and Virginia, opposite Hotel Latham.

Make your smoke-money go three times as far!

Easy enough if you don't have to pay for the costly work of making useless heads on your cigars.

Nothing to throw away on an Old Virginia Cheroot—there is no useless head to clip off. And that's the main reason why you get three for your nickel instead of one.

Made from the small leaves and selected clippings of fine domestic filler leaf, rolled into the biggest and cleanest cigar perfect cheroots in the factory in the world.

Smoked everywhere—1,000,000 every day!

Also a brick pavement on the West side of Liberty street, between 9th and 10th.

A motion to put a Cumberland phone in the Fire Department was made. It was opposed by retiring Chief Randle, who said it would be a disadvantage. The motion was lost by the Mayor's vote, who broke a tie, Dr. Jackson having been called out to see a patient before the question came up.

ITCHING SCALP FALLING HAIR

Came Out Constantly—Hair Finally Had to Be Cut to Save Any—Scalp Now in Good Condition and No More Itching—Another Effective

CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I will gladly give you all the information concerning my case. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment for a diseased scalp, dandruff, and constant falling of hair. Finally I had to cut my hair to save any at all. Just at that time I read about the Cuticura Remedies. Once every week I shampooed my hair with the Cuticura Soap, and I used the Ointment twice a week. In two months' time my hair was long enough to do up in French twist. It is now five years ago, and I have a lovely head of hair. The length is six inches below my waist line, my scalp is in very good condition, and no more dandruff or itching of the scalp. I used other remedies that were recommended to me as good, but with no results. If you wish to publish any of what I have written, you are welcome to do so. I am, respectfully, Mrs. W. F. Green, City Center, Neb., Oct. 23, 1905."

of running such cars as public safety and convenience may require, and to affix penalties for violation of such regulations.

Sec. 3. The tract of such railway shall not be elevated above the surface of the streets, and same shall be laid so as to conform to the established grades of the streets of said City, and all work done hereunder shall be done under the supervision of the City engineer of the city of Hopkinsville, and in such manner as to be no impediment to the ordinary use of the streets, and the passage of wagons, carriages and other vehicles upon, along or across said tracks, with suitable bridges at all the gutters so as to permit the free flow of the water in and along such gutters, and the said Hilliard M. Dalton, person or persons, company or corporations who may become the purchaser of this franchise, shall repair and repave so much of said streets as shall be taken up or occupied by their said tracks and cars for same, and a distance of eighteen inches from the outside of each rail or track, and keep the same in good repair during the life of this franchise, and in the event of their failure to do so, the Mayor and Council may prevent the use of their said tracks until such repairs are made. In the event any street repairing is required under this section, same shall be done in the same manner and out of the same material as is used in the construction of such street, over which said railroad shall pass.

Sec. 4. All tracks of said street railway shall be of uniform gauge, and the Mayor and Council shall have at any time, power to order the purchaser of this franchise to cause any such tracks to be taken up and relaid at the expense of said purchaser whenever it is necessary for the purpose of regrading or repairing any street, and said Hilliard M. Dalton, or any person or persons, company or corporation who may purchase this franchise shall be liable for all legal damages which may be sustained by any person by reason of the carelessness or misconduct of any of their servants or agents in the construction or use of said railroad; provided that the expense of taking up and relaying said tracks shall be paid by the contractor or corporation requiring such work to be done, excepting the city of Hopkinsville.

Sec. 5. Provided however, that if said company shall have its depots, stations, power houses or car houses located on any lot fronting on any street, they shall have the privilege of laying down turnout tracks leading from such streets into such depots, stations, power houses or car houses.

Sec. 6. That cars shall not stop on any cross streets or street running at right angles with the street the car is on, for receiving or discharging passengers or freight, so as to impede or obstruct travel on such cross streets, but to prevent same shall not stop until after passing such cross streets.

Dalton, or the person or persons, company or corporation who may purchase same, from furnishing cars for any special purpose at such rates as may be agreed upon between them or it and the contracting parties. Provided that no freight originally consigned to any railroad company shall be transferred or delivered by the grantee to any other railroad company in said city of Hopkinsville, Ky., and provided further that the said Hilliard M. Dalton, or the person or persons, company or corporation who may purchase this franchise when sold, shall locate and designate a depot for the reception and shipment of freight, and shall designate the streets approaching thereto, and departing therefrom, and the location of said depot and the right to operate on said streets shall be first approved, sanctioned and acquiesced in by the board of council of the city of Hopkinsville, Ky. The object and purpose of this proviso is to prevent any ruse or subterfuge by which this franchise can be used for any purpose other than that presented to this council; a street railway and lighting plant in and for the city of Hopkinsville, Ky.

Sec. 8. The cars or carriages of said City shall be run upon and along the tracks of said railway in conformity to the the following rules and regulations:

1. No car shall be allowed to stop on the street crossings, or in front of any intersecting street, except to avoid collision or prevent damage to persons in the street, or take on or leave off passengers.

3. Motorman shall announce to passengers in a distinct tone, the name of all streets crossed, as soon as the cars have approached such cross streets.

4. That the rate of speed of cars so being operated upon the streets of the city of Hopkinsville shall be limited to ten miles an hour.

5. The cars of said company shall be entitled to the tracks and in all cases when any teams or vehicles shall meet or be overtaken by a car, such team or vehicle shall give way to said car, after being notified by the motorman by sounding the gong or otherwise.

Sec. 9. Said Hilliard M. Dalton, or the person or persons, company or corporation purchasing this franchise when sold shall have the further permission and authority to erect, maintain and operate at any place in or near the said city, which may be selected by the grantee, engines, boilers or any other machinery or apparatus necessary or desirable by said grantee for the purpose of manufacturing or generating and distributing electricity for illuminating purposes, and for motor power for running fans or other machinery. ### ARE THE STARS INHABITED?

Question Arises Among Astronomers Whether Other Planets Are Like this Earth.

Astronomers can see with a great modern telescope at least 100,000,000 stars in the entire universe. The question arises: "How many other bodies like the earth exist in space?" Prof. T. J. J. See, of the United States navy, claims that the study of the double stars tends to support the contention of Dr. Alfred Russel Wallace that the universe is not inhabited except the earth alone. In 1896 Dr. See published a work on the orbits of all the double stars which could be determined at that time, and he found the double stars so different from the solar system that he says no other system like that to which the earth belongs is known to exist in the heavens. The double stars revolve in orbits of high eccentricity, and the two members of a system are usually equal or comparable in mass, while the planets of the solar system move in very circular orbits and have masses which are infinitely small compared to that of the sun, about which they revolve. The result is that the solar system affords equable conditions of heat and light, such as organic life requires, while the system of the double stars would furnish such great changes of light and heat that life could not survive on a planet attached to a member of a double, such as Sirius or Procyon.

The sun has a mass 746 times greater than all the planets combined, and this makes it an autocrat over the planets, whose motions it dominates absolutely. The double stars are in reality a system of double suns, and mathematicians claim that a planet could not move safely and quietly in such a system—that it would sooner or later come into collision with one of the stars, or be driven from the system never to return, in either case destroying the chances of organic life. The number of dark bodies in the heavens is immense and, of course, it is possible that some of these may afford conditions suitable for organic life, but up to this time astronomers are unable to point to a single body of this kind outside of the solar system.

Of dark planets attending the stars Dr. See writes: "If such considerable companions as our sun possesses attend the fixed stars, they would neither be visible nor could they be discovered by any perturbations which they might produce. It is, therefore, impossible to determine whether the stellar system includes such bodies as the planets, and we are thus unaware of the existence of any other system like our own. On the other hand, the heavens present to our consideration an infinite number of double systems, each of which is divided into comparable masses. These double systems stand in direct contrast to the planetary system, where the central body has 746 times the mass of all the other bodies combined."

"Wood" in England. Present-day Britons and their ancestors of a very long vanished past are brought into close touch by the discovery in a very large barrow near Leek, in Staffordshire, of some of the wood with which the ancient Britons were said to have dyed their bodies. The wood was found in the form of a bluish dust. In the same barrow, which is being removed for building purposes, has been found a funeral urn, containing some of the bones of a child, and a stone worked into the shape of a heart. Some of the blue wood has been found before in another barrow in the same part of the country.

Sculptor's Error. A statue of Camille Desmoulins, unveiled the other day in Paris, disappeared from its pedestal the next night and the explanation is distinctly amusing. It was found that most of the garments with which the sculptor had provided the revolutionary firebrand were of the wrong date. The coat and cloak are of a pattern which did not come in for several years later, and instead of knee breeches and large-buckled shoes Camille's nether limbs are incased in very modern riding boots. So M. Desmoulins is to be re-dressed.
